INTRODUCTION

My name is Honey. I am the wife of Jonah and the mama to five little munchkins. Promptings is a journal prompt book. Take the words at the top of each page and write about them. When using journal prompts it is interesting to see what thoughts come to mind when you read the different words.

Try using different types of writing methods with these prompts. Try your hand at poetry. Write something descriptive. Write a thought provoking narrative. Write a list of all the words you think of when you hear each of the different prompts. Write your general journal on these pages and try to use the word prompt in your journal entry. Try writing about the same prompt for a few days in a row and see if you can come up with different ideas to write about. Try printing the pages out on different types of paper. You could use bright colors or pastels. You could use different textures or qualities of paper also. Be creative. See how you are inspired by these quotes.

These prompts would be perfect for older students to use to stimulate their creative writing.

There is a blank page at the back if you need an extra page for any of the prompts or if you are inspired to create your own prompts.

Blessings

Honey
